

I serve because I want to give back to the education system that has helped me and many others achieve their dreams.

We must provide hope for our future leaders of this community through education. One of the most rewarding things about serving is that I get to serve alongside some of the best in education. Our teachers, custodians, administrators, aides, and cafeteria staff are some of the best. I am glad to be a part of their team.

BRAD SMALL

- 4 months of Service
- Hometown - Lancaster, SC
- Profession - Financial Consultant for Founders Investment Services

