

Pacing Calendar for: Modern World History Pre AP
R1	R2	R3	R4
Standard 1: The Emergence of the Modern World <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compare and contrast the major political, social, and belief systems of the early modern world. • Examine the causes and effects of the events surrounding the Renaissance on the rise of Europe • Explain the development of the Protestant Reformation and the Scientific Revolution • Summarize the motivations of worldwide exploration and the influence of exploration on world civilizations. • Explain the development of 	Standard 2: Commerce, Innovation, and Expansion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compare and contrast the philosophies and practices of absolutism to the philosophies of and practices of constitutional democracies. • Contextualize the impact of the Scientific Revolution and the Enlightenment in expanding global interactions in commerce and innovations. • Explain how the Enlightenment led to American, French, British, Haitian, and Latin American Revolutions as well as summarize how major world revolutions created new global affairs and interactions. • Examine the continuities and changes in the 	Standard 3: Nationalism and Industrialization <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compare the significant turning points in the development of nationalism and their implications on the world. • Summarize the installation of new governments during the Meiji Restoration, Russian Revolution, and Chinese Revolution. Standard 4: World Power Struggle <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explain the motives for and effects of European countries in the Age of Imperialism. • Analyse the significant cause of World War I and how the treaty of Versailles attempted to resolve future global conflicts. 	Standard 5: Integration <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compare the cultural and political implications of the Cold War. • Analyze developments resulting from post World War II decolonization in Asia and Africa. • Summarize the interconnections between the United States and the world community through culture, economic, and political changes. • Describe the development of international efforts to recognize and protect human rights. • Contextualize the major economic, geographical, political, religious, and social factors and their impact on nations

Eastern Hemisphere trade networks. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Analyze the continuities and the changes within the rise and expansion of the Ottoman Empire and its impact on the world. 	development of world trade networks and colonialism. Standard 3: Nationalism and Industrialization <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contextualize industrialization within various cultural and political changes occurring during the 19th century as well as analyzing the continuities and changes in the quality of life in Europe resulting from industrialization. Analyze industrialization as a catalyst for new immigration and migration patterns. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Summarize the significant technological innovations that led to the realignment of global powers. Contextualize how the relationship developed between the interwar years, World War II, and the Holocaust as well as how they impacted the economy, governments, and developments from 1919 - 1950. Analyze significant political and economic developments as catalysts for changing the global power structures. 	during the period of 1989 - present.
---	---	---	---

The use of primary and secondary sources are used often in the Modern World History Pre AP classroom. These sources help students see a real side of history. By analyzing, summarizing, and placing events into context, students will hopefully learn the material instead of memorizing it. The sources provide an image of history by delving deeper into the events that are a part of the historical life.