

Homebound instruction

Homebound services for pregnant students

Homebound services for pregnant students will follow the suggested timeline below. No exceptions will be made unless the physician's documents severe complications of the pregnancy that make a variance from guidelines necessary.

- ✓ Students become eligible for homebound instruction a maximum of six weeks before the projected delivery date.
- ✓ Students must return to school one month after delivery date.