

3-7 p.m.
Saturday
July 13

FREE!

Awards Ceremony at 3 p.m.

Bookbags, school supplies, hot dogs & more!

National Youth Empowerment Kids Day Festival 2019

Free

Bookbags,
School supplies,
Face painting,
Haircuts for boys ages 4-18

Raffle

(Children only)
Boxes of groceries

Certificates & Medals

during special ceremony
honoring
National Youth
Empowerment
Achievement Award
recipients
from each school

Free

(Children & adults)
Candy apples,
Popcorn,
Hot dogs,
Chips,
Cookies,
Candy,
Soda

Talent Showcase

(Open to all)
Poetry,
Gospel groups,
R&B singing,
Miming,
Stepping

Games

Basketball,
Baseball,
Bouncers

Mayor
Alston DeVenny

Black Rosez from Atlanta will perform

Sponsored by former Lancaster resident Ja Von Crockett; local supporters of the event to be recognized - Mayor Alston DeVenny, Superintendent Dr. Jonathan Phipps, Police Chief Scott Grant, Fire Chief Justin McClellan, City Councilwoman Tamara Green-Garris & City Councilman Kenny Hood & other City Council Members; Hospitality Tax Committee; and Former Police Chief Harlean Carter

Southside Park • 500 Connor Street • Lancaster, SC

