

- Highly qualified and experienced staff – Our staff has expertise in the competitive bidding process, negotiating and selecting sources of supply, contract management, development of specifications, and knowledge in the legal aspects of procurement.
- Time and resource management – Ability to manage projects and deadlines, performing under constant pressure with limited resources.
- Professionalism and integrity – Good customer relations with vendor community.
- Ensure fair treatment of all vendors and make sure the procurement integrity rules are followed.