

General Prek-12 Information

Teacher Information	Parent Information	Student Information
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Lessons/Assignments will be posted for the week by Sunday at 9:00 p.m. and will be modified based on the needs of the students ● Due to reduced class size, teachers will have more time to work with students in small groups ● Teachers will have published contact time daily to answer student questions and talk with parents and students ● Teachers will make daily contact with students in their class ● All teachers will deliver instruction and support from their school building daily ● LCSD will be using Google Classroom as the Learning Management System ● GMail and Google Meet will be the primary communication ● C days will be reserved for students to come to the building at the teacher's discretion. A schedule will be provided for students 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Students in kindergarten - grade 8 will attend school on a staggered schedule from Aug 31 - Sept 4 to complete required assessments and/or orientation ● Students will have access to teachers during the teacher's planning times ● Assignments will be posted weekly ● Grade-level South Carolina Standards will be taught in all grades ● New instructional content will be taught, work will be graded, and attendance will be taken ● Internet accessibility is available to students after the school day or on weekends in your school's designated area ● Students will continue enrollment in the Lancaster County School District and the school they are zoned for the following year ● Students will be taught by a certified LCSD School Teacher 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Learning will be new and rigorous ● A variety of assessments will be administered to monitor and assess student progress ● Students in kindergarten and first grade who choose remote learning will be assigned paper and pencil packets for completion ● Students in grades 2-12 will have a district issued device, case, and charger. Protection Plan is available ● Students will commit to their learning model(Face-to-Face or Virtual) for the semester ● Students must submit work through Google Classroom by due dates ● Students with limited internet access will download lessons on their device before leaving campus for the remainder of the week ● When learning at home, students are encouraged to follow the daily school schedule. Some flexibility is built into the home learning days for high school students

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • C days will be used for cleaning, planning, grading, and professional learning • Teachers will upload lessons in preparation for at-home learning days. These lessons are expected to continue to move the learning forward • Formal and informal assessment (projects, tests, quizzes, etc) may be completed at-home and in-person • Grading will follow the guidelines as outlined in the district's Assessing and Reporting Document • Students with limited internet access will download lessons on their device before leaving campus for the remainder of the week. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regular in-person attendance will occur on A or B days. Students will be assigned to either an A or B day by their school after the enrollment period ends on July 31 • Students will participate in lessons through Google Meet and Google Classroom assignments and independent learning activities when learning at home. • Temperature checks will be conducted daily before school starts • Masks will be required for students and staff. • C days will be reserved for students to come to the building at the teacher's discretion. A schedule will be provided for students. • C days will be used cleaning, planning, grading, and professional learning • Grading will follow the guidelines as outlined in the district's Assessing and Reporting Document 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Formal and informal assessments may be completed at-home and in-person • Grading will follow the guidelines as outlined in the district's Assessing and Reporting Document
--	--	---

Distance Learning

Teacher Information	Parent Information	Student Information
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lessons/Assignments will be posted by Sunday at 9 p.m. • Teachers will have published contact time daily to answer student questions and talk with parents and students • All teachers will report to their building daily • LCSD will be using Google Classroom as the Learning Management System • Google applications will be used to communicate • New instructional content will be taught, work will be graded, and attendance will be taken. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will have the opportunity to attend school on a staggered schedule from Aug 31 - Sept 4 to complete required assessments, pickup their assigned device and materials • Students will have access to teachers during the teacher's contact times posted weekly • Assignments will be posted weekly • Digital coursework will be completed through computer-based platforms including the Virtual SC franchise and Google Classroom. • Some courses will be taught using the Virtual SC Franchise Program. These courses will potentially operate more like a typical online course where there may not always be set daily start and end times. However, work will be due and collected on a regular basis. • Grade-level South Carolina Standards will be taught. • New instructional content will be taught, work will be graded, and attendance will be taken 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning will be new and rigorous • A variety of assessments will be administered to monitor and assess student progress • Grades 2-12 will have a district issued device, case, and charger. (Protection Plan is available) • Students will commit to the distance learning model for the semester. • Students must submit work through Google Classroom • When learning at home, all students are encouraged to follow the daily school schedule. Some flexibility is built into the home learning days

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• When learning at home, students are expected to follow the daily school schedule. Some flexibility is built into the home learning days for high school students.• Internet accessibility is available in your school's designated areas after school and on weekends• Students will continue enrollment in the Lancaster County School District and the school they are zoned for the following year• Students will be taught by a certified LCSD School Teacher• Students will participate in live and recorded Google Meet lessons, Google Classroom assignments and independent learning activities when learning at home.• Middle and High school students will still be able to participate in afterschool sports at their zoned school following High School League guidelines• For MS- Algebra I and English I will be offered on VirtualSC• HS Courses offered on VirtualSC are listed here: (hyperlink)
--	--	--