RESPONSE MATRIX

Close Contact = less than 6 feet apart for more than 15 minutes even while wearing a mask

If you are:	Then you should:	You may return when:
Symptomatic of COVID-19	Isolate for (10) days or until tested	You have a negative test OR Provide a medical evaluation that determines that the symptoms were due to another cause (medical note required) OR Complete the COVID-19 Employee/Student Self-Certification Return to Work Form
Positive or presumptive positive for COVID-19	Isolate for (10) days as soon as your symptoms start. If no symptoms, then as soon as you receive a positive test result.	You have a negative test at least 14 days after the initial positive test was administered OR You have completed the current isolation criteria including: *isolate (10) days beginning when symptoms start or test taken, whichever is later * fever free for (24) hours without medication *overall improvement in symptoms * Complete the COVID-19 Employee/Student Self-Certification Return to Work Form
A close contact of an individual contagious with COVID-19 that lives in the same house as you	Excluded from school/work for the contagious individual's entire isolation period (until their last day of isolation) PLUS an additional 14 days	AND Complete the COVID-19 Employee/Student Self-Certification Return to Work Form If the individual receives a negative test result before the isolation period is over, they still can't return. The individual must complete the entire isolation period. If the individual receives a positive test result before the isolation period is over, then they follow their own criteria for return based on a positive test result.
A close contact of an individual contagious with COVID-19 forty-eight (48) hours prior to their onset of symptoms or 48 hours before they were tested	Excluded from work/school for 14 days after last contact with person	AND Complete the COVID-19 Employee/Student Self-Certification Return to Work/School Form